Betty spent three days in Dublin - the capital city of Ireland. She was there with her mum, dad, sister and granny. They really liked this place and took a lot of amazing photos. The weather wasn't good. It was cold and rainy. But it wasn't a big problem for them. They visited St Patrick's Catherdral, Christ Church Cathedral and admired Ha'penny bridge. It was a fantastic trip for Betty and her family. They would like to visit Ireland next year, too!

① Przeczytaj i zdecyduj czy podane zdania są prawdziwe (R), fałszywe (W), niewspomniane (DS).

One morning last spring, my mum was at the computer in her office at home. She saw a special low price for a family holiday to Rome, so she tried to buy the tickets as fast as she could. I went into the office to get my Maths book for school, and I looked over at the computer screen. It was a good thing that I did! Mum was just about to click the button to book our holiday – but there was a mistake. She was in such a hurry that she forgot to add Dad to the list! Luckily, we fixed the mistake in time and everyone in my family got a ticket.

1. It was the first time Mum booked a holiday online.
2. Mum was trying to book the tickets quickly because they were cheap.
3. Mum noticed the mistake herself.
4. Dad couldn't go on holiday with the rest of the family.
